Graduate students! Apply to mentor Douglass College undergrads today.

Learn how to:

- Co-create a mentoring contract with undergraduate mentees.
- Facilitate engaging and inclusive dialogues.
- Define equitable strategies for mentoring undergraduates.
- Structure mentoring relationships in a way that affirms diversity and advances equity, inclusion, and social justice.

Graduate student mentors will benefit from:

- concrete mentoring experience with 4 undergrad mentees in AY 2022-23
- training in equitable mentoring and facilitation
- $300/semester compensation
- eligibility for a digital badge

The goal of the Mentoring for Social Justice and Community-Building Project is to foster mutually beneficial relationships between current graduate students and undergraduates committed to aligning their scholarship, advocacy, and collaborations with social justice principles.
