

RUTGERS GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION DIVERSITY,
EQUITY, AND INCLUSION COMMITTEE AND RUTGERS CENTER
FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE EDUCATION PRESENT

Gender in Society: Feminism

This workshop lead by Diversity Peer Educators from SJE will challenge beliefs around what feminism looks like, who it is for, and why it is important by looking at it through a critical lens. Students will partake in an engaging discussion on topics around feminism such as gender roles and expectations, groups that have been historically left out of the feminist movement, and how toxic masculinity and toxic femininity play into these perceptions.

APRIL 26TH

7-8PM

RSVP HERE FOR ZOOM LINK

GSA-Sponsored Event